

LES EXTRAS

FESTIVAL DU PREMIER ROMAN

9—11
Oct 2020

The Extras du Festival du Premier Roman (Extras of the First Novel Festival) will be held from October 9th to October 11th 2020, in Chambéry and in Savoie. Though under a very new shape, the Festival will remain the strong event it has always been : 22 authors of first novels chosen for you by the readers' network of Lectures Plurielles, and 9 guests you'll be able to meet as much as you wish in debates, workshops, shows or around a drink. There will be more than 50 meetings to attend along the three days : opportunities to discover the varied guests' world in French, but also in German, English, Spanish, Italian and Romanian.

The writer Laurent Binet, who has his habits at our Festival as he came for both his first and second novels (Hhhh - La septième fonction du langage / The Seventh Function of Language ) will be our guest of honor. He will be back with a new title, Civilizations (Grasset), Grand Prix du roman de l'Académie Française, to guide the first steps of the debut writers present and meet the audiences of Chambéry again.

The new cultural spot La Base, inside of the Espace Malraux, will be the headquarters of our event. Most of the meetings, the literary aperitifs and the signing sessions will be held there. The independant bookshops of the city will sell a vast selection of books and you will be able to have a gourmet break within the premises.
